

Bengt Hansson

Sweden

Current:

- Recently retired from Boverket and presently on "vacation" and doing part time consulting work

Past:

- Lecturer in economics at Uppsala University 1980-1990
- Head of the forecasting group at the Swedish central bank 1991-1996
- Economic research at Handelsbanken (SHB) 1996-1998, Skandinaviska enskilda banken (SEB) 1998-2000.
- Chief Economist at the Third Swedish National Pension Fund 2000-2007.
- Senior Economist at The National Board of Housing and Credit 2008-2013, and The Swedish National Board of Housing, Building and Planning 2014-2019. Analysing the Swedish housing market and the pricing of credit guarantees to banks for lending to housing construction.

Education:

- PhD in economics from Uppsala University.