

Hans-Peter Burghof

Germany

Current:

- Hans-Peter Burghof has been university professor, Chair of Banking and Financial Services, at the University of Hohenheim since 2003.

Past:

- From 1993 to 2002 Hans-Peter Burghof worked as research associate assistant at the University of Munich where he got his doctorate and postdoctoral lecture qualification.
- Between 2002 and 2003 he was interim professor at the Universities of Mainz and Hohenheim and was appointed university professor at the University of Hohenheim in 2003.
- In 2012 he was visiting researcher at the University of Ottawa and in 2015 at Ca' Foscari University of Venice.

Education:

- 1984-1988: vocational training and work experience at the savings bank Sparkasse Neuwied
- 1988-1993: studies of economics at the University of Bonn
- 1993-1998: further studies in business economics at the University of Munich and doctorate
- 2002: postdoctoral lecture qualification at the University of Munich
- 2003: appointment as professor at the University of Hohenheim