

Karin Wagner

Austria

Current:

- Senior Economist at Oesterreichische Nationalbank (Austrian Central Bank), Vienna, Economic Analysis Division (since 1997)
- Research interests in developments of residential and commercial real estate markets, in microdata and general economic statistics
- Membership in international working groups (ECB, Eurostat, BIS), in national expert groups (e.g. Statistics Austria) and in various advisory councils
- Lecturer at Fachhochschule Kufstein Tirol University of applied Sciences, at the University of Applied Sciences of the BFI Vienna and at the University of Applied Sciences for Management and Communication WK Vienna
- Author of numerous economic papers and articles in international and national journals and books, refereeing of national and international journal articles and project proposals

Past:

- External Lecturer at Vienna University of Technology: Data Envelopment Analysis (DEA) – evaluation of non-profit organizations, postgraduate courses (1997-2002)
- Collaboration at a project on economic effects on Austria due to the fall of the iron curtain, at Ludwig Boltzmann Institute (1998) and at a project on an energy forecast, at the Austrian Institute of Economic Research (WIFO, 1995)
- Bundesländer Insurance Company, Vienna, management of premiums (1992)

Education:

- PhD studies in Technical Mathematics at Vienna University of Technology (dissertation: evaluation of research outputs – models to measure efficiency of units producing non-profit items)
- Master's degree in Technical Mathematics applied to Economics at Vienna University of Technology (thesis: application of an input-output model including environment)
- Studies of Business administration (later: Macroeconomics) at Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration (not finished)