

Masahiro Kobayashi

Japan

Current:

- Director General, International Affairs and Research Department at Japan Housing Finance Agency (JHF). Specialist for mortgages and securitization
- Part-time Lecturer at Graduate School of Finance, Accounting and Law, Waseda University
- Advisory Board Member of Asia Pacific Union for Housing Finance
- Mr. Kobayashi has published several books and articles on the global financial crisis. He has recently been advocating green housing finance in various occasions including G20 Global Summit on Financing Energy Efficiency, Innovation and Clean Technology in June 2019, among others.

Past:

- JHF, Director General for Global Market, Research and Survey Department, and Director General for International Affairs, Corporate Strategy Department
- JHF, Chief Economist for Global Market
- Government Housing Loan Corporation (GHLC), Director for New Product Development, Planning Department. The GHLC was the precursor of the JHF.
- Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae), Special Trainee
- Japan Bank for International Cooperation (JBIC), Deputy Country Director for Republic of the Philippines
- Overseas Economic Cooperation Fund (OECF), Resident Representative in Manila, Philippines
- GHLC, Manager, Rental Housing Units, Osaka Branch
- GHLC, Economist and other positions

Education:

- Bachelor of Law, University of Tokyo