

Florian Ebrecht

Germany

Current:

- General Manager and head of technical building management at Spar- und Bauverein eG Dortmund
- Assumption of operational, strategic and personnel responsibility as well as control of technical building management
- Preparation of budget planning and detailed planning
- Responsible for the further development and optimization of work processes and procedures
- Lecturer for the faculty "Cooperatives" at the EBZ Business School in Bochum, Germany

Previous Professional Activity:

- Various management positions at Spar- und Bauverein eG Dortmund:
Management of strategic special projects, e.g. software changeover;
Management of the working group "occupational safety", coordination between FASI, safety officer, management and personnel department as well as implementation of measures such as new fire protection regulations;
Introduction of an IT-supported maintenance contract management system;
Head of traffic safety and janitor service

Education:

- Currently completing a doctorate in engineering in the area of spatial planning, Technical University of Dortmund, Germany
- Managing director qualification for housing cooperatives with savings facilities, Academy of German Cooperatives, Montabaur
- Master of Science - Project Development, EBZ Business School, Bochum
- Bachelor of Arts - Real Estate, EBZ Business School, Bochum